The Travelling Allowance bill of the First Member's Establishment for July 1920 with the audit objection thereon is submitted.

2) It will be seen therefrom that the audit office has disallowed the claim for the inclusion of the allowance sanctioned in Government Order dated the 19th July 1920, for calculating Travelling Allowance

3) The allowance sanctioned in the above Government Order is not apparently treated as purely grain allowance for the reason that, while the latter did not count for leave allowances, the former does. It is something higher than local allowance for purposes of the calculation of consolidate pay, as local allowance does not count for purposes of leave allowances, while the special allowance does count.

4) In this view, enhanced travelling allowance was claimed in the bill, which the audit office has objected to.

5) It is a point for consideration - whether the Government Order referred to 40 With His Highness's sanction, enhanced rates of allowances consolidating the grain and war allowances are now being granted to all officials on pay not exceeding Rs.100 with effect from the 1st July 1920. A representation to count the allowance for purposes of calculating travelling allowance was considered by Council, who are of opinion that the allowance may be included in pay for the calculation of travelling allowance. It has been ascertained that in Madras also the allowance sanctioned by the Madras Government is treated as a temporary addition to pay for purposes of the travelling allowance rules.

With reference to G.O.No.780 Financial dated the 28th August 1920, ordering that temporary allowance sanctioned to Government subordinates should be treated as temporary additions to pay, I have the honor to enclose a memo of subsidiary instructions for your guidance and for the guidance of officers under you who draw bills.

Memo of instructions to be observed in connection with G.O. No.780 Financial Dated the 28th August 1920, treating the temporary allowances sanctioned to Government subordinates as temporary additions to pay.

The allowances having been treated as temporary additions to pay, the consolidated pay of each appointment should be worked out and it should be taken as pay for all purposes of the Civil Service Regulations, For example

(1) An officer on privilege leave is entitled to a leave allowance equal to the substantive pay, if any plus temporary addition, and any acting allowance calculated on the substantive pay plus temporary addition in respect of any officiating appointment on which the has a lien.

(2) Both the absentee on privilege leave as well as his locum tenens will get the full benefit of the temporary increase. For example, if a clerk on Rs.60/- plus Rs.~~28~~18/- temporary increase, goes on privilege leave and a clerk on Rs.50/- acts for him, the former would get Rs.78/- and the latter would get Rs.50/- plus Rs.15/- temporary increase plus an acting allowance of 1/5th of Rs.78/- or Rs.15 3/6th or Rs.80/- 3/5ths. Supposing an outsider is taken on to act on Rs.20/- as ~~in~~ the last in the chain of the above acting arrangements, the pay of this last appointment (in the moffussil) would be taken as R.20/- plus R.10/- (temporary increase) and the outsider would thus be - eligible to draw R.30/-.

(3) The temporary increase will also be taken in account in calculating all leave allowances, overtime allowances, travelling allowances and pensions.

(4) The temporary increase will be included in "pay" for purposes of articles 144, 147 (iii) and 335 (revised article 321) of the Civil Service Regulations.

(5) The temporary increase should be calculated only on the permanent substantive pay, exclusive of acting, change and personal - allowances, local or duty allowances, deputation (local or duty) allowances pensions.

(6) The temporary increase will not absorb or reduce any "~~perma-~~ Personal ~~nent~~ allowance" for purposes of article 61 of the Civil Service Regulations, in other words, an officer may continue to draw the personal allowances in addition to the temporary increase, ~~as~~ so long as his permanent ~~xx~~ substantive pay or salary remains the same.

(7) The temporary increase should be included in salary for purposes of income tax and attachment ~~of~~ by a civil court.

(8) ~~To the~~ In the above extract, the instructions already issued in regard to "temporary allowances" should be considered as superseded.

Press Communique.

Ootacamund, the 2nd August 1920.

In G.O.No.499, Financial, dated the 1st June 1920, the Madras Government accorded sanction to the grant, as a temporary measure, to all whole-time Government servants on regular establishments paid from general revenues, whose pay did not exceed Rs.100 per mensem, of an allowance of 50 per cent. of their pay, subject to a maximum of Rs.10 per mensem. Since the issue of this order representations have been received - urging, on the one hand, that temporary relief should also be granted to officers drawing more than Rs.100 and, on the other that the scale of allowances sanctioned for those drawing -- Rs.100 and less should be increased. At the last meeting of the Legislative Council a resolution was moved by the Hon'ble Mr. Siva Rao to the following effect:--

"This Council recommends to His Excellency the Governor in Council that the addition to salary sanctioned, by way of temporary relief, in the recent Government Order to all officers of Government drawing Rs.100 and less may be increased."

In replying to this the Hon'ble Mr. Todhunter stated - that the Government had already prepared proposals for further increasing the allowances of subordinate officers, and that these proposals had received the sanction of the Government of India, subject however to certain financial conditions, compliance with which was at the time difficult. The difficulty has now been surmounted and the Government are in a position to -- announce the following concessions, which will afford some improvement in the conditions of those of their non-gazetted servants to whom G.O.No.499, Financial, dated 1st June 1920, has brought little or no relief:--

For subordinates whose salaries do not exceed Rs.20 the allowance will remain, as laid down in that Order, at 50 per cent. of salary, and there will be no change in the case of those whose salaries exceed Rs.20 but do not exceed Rs.33 1/3; but subordinates whose salries exceed the last named figure but do not exceed Rs.60 will receive an allowance of 30 per cent of their salaries; those whose salaries exceed Rs.60 but not Rs.100, 25 per cent. subject to a minimum of Rs.18; those whose salaries exceed Rs.100 but not Rs.200, 20 per cent. subject to a minimum of Rs.25; and those whose salaries exceed Rs.200, 15 per cent. subject to a minimum of Rs.40.

A few individual officers are excluded from the scope of this concession either because their pay has been very recently revised or because it is in process of revision with retrospective effect. In all other cases these allowances will be granted with effect from the 1st April 1920.

R. A. Graham,
Acting Chief Secretary.
